

My trip to Finland

SEBASTIAN PORTELLO

9.3

Day one

We had to leave Gozo at 1 in the after noon. The flight was at 5 and we arrived there at 1 in the morning. These are some pictures in the Finland airport and on the highways of Finland

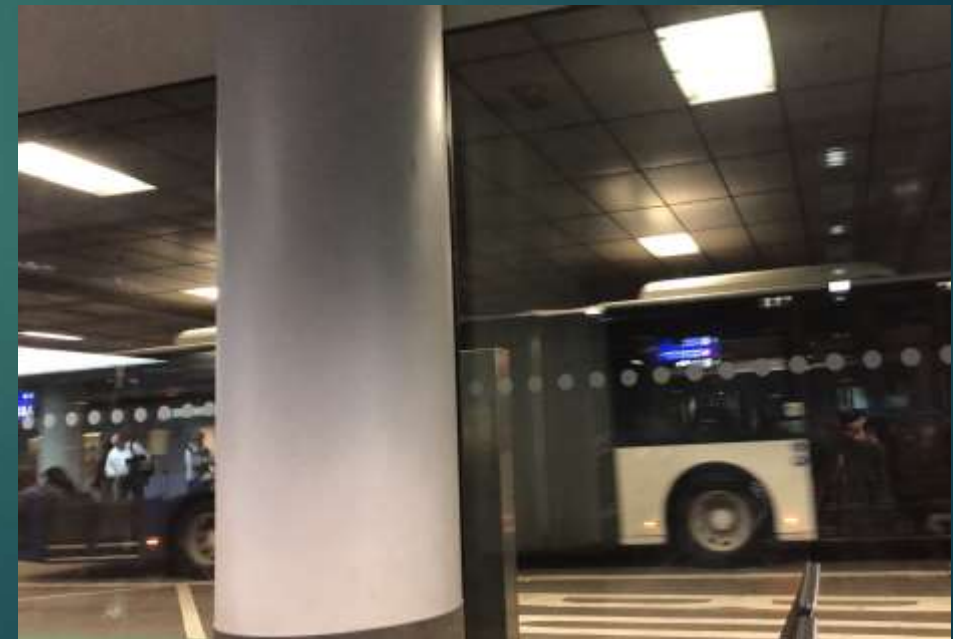

A blurry picture of snow on the highways

Me and Maria going on our first plane to Finland

The means of transport in the Finland airport was mostly by bus in the terminal

Day two on the second day we went to the school and there was a small party then after the party we went to the forest which was covered with snow

A ginger bread house was made so it would be at a lottery

My name in the snow

A winter full forest of trees covered with snow

Day 3

- ▶ Sorry for this one but I didn't take photos. So on the third day we went to the school again and we had a welcoming party and In the afternoon with the family we didn't go anywhere and we stayed home talking. Then Jonas had his indoor sports training and after we went home and slept.

Day 4

- ▶ we went to school at 9 and finished at 1:15 but instead of going to school e went to the library and it was humongous after I went home and did some Christmas baking whit Jonas is grandmother after we went to a hockey match.

The library from the front

The sorting system of the library

Some cookies we baked

The warming up before a hockey game

Day 5

- ▶ On this day the 4 grade students had their independence dance so our Erasmus group and the sixth graders took us to the zoo on an island. We stayed on the island till 4 after we had dinner with all the 4 graders.

The bridge we had to cross to go to the zoo

Some animals that were in the zoo.

Day 6

- ▶ The last day in Finland we went to school and after school the family I was staying in took me downtown and after the mother and I went shopping and took a coffee after I started packing and was preparing for our 5hr flight back

The catholic church and the small huts were suppose to be the Christmas market but it was closed and it will open on Friday the day we left

There local cheese cake

The Christmas shopping mall

Day 7

We left for the plane at 3 in the morning so we would be there by 5 so we would be back by 6:30 and we had 5 flights and it was a nightmare .

I would like to thank the head mistress and the Erasmus group who took me to Finland
